Munz faces charges of possession of marijuana and resisting arrest. (File photo) After sending a text message to a classmate, a Central High School student was arrested at school Tuesday and charged with resisting arrest and drug possession, according to a news release. Anthony Scott "Ant" Munz, 17, of Allentown, was arrested around 9 a.m. Tuesday after he refused to be searched, Fayette County District Attorney Richard M. Cavanaugh said. Munz was arrested after a school resource officer had to be called to the gym. "The officer was called out because the school was in a lockdown because a student had a gun on him," Cavanaugh said. M
