Note: The serial number format for Windows 10 Pro is "nnnn-nmm". The number of digit is your product key's serial number. A: Likely scenario: You were not registered on this forum. You may have forgotten your password. You got an answer from an old account. You are not logged in. Any combination of these. All of the above combined with a slow internet connection makes a rare mistake quite easy. Can also happen with new accounts, but it's likely you get that automatically. They call it a "pop-up," but technically it's not a pop-up. Because this art installation is part of a larger work. The word "pop-up" in reference to this, I guess, "art 2d92ce491b"
